

Kidpower Workshops for Children Ages 6-12 With Autism Spectrum Disorders and Other Developmental Disabilities and their Adults

Two sessions - please try to attend both

Wednesday, April 24, 4-6pm: Parent/Caregiver Education Workshop

Adults Only in this session, and childcare available

Wednesday, May 1, 4-6pm: Parent-Child Workshop

Childcare available for non-registered children

In these fun and active groups, children on the autism spectrum disorder or with other developmental disabilities and their “grownups” will learn and practice self-protection skills to use in everyday situations and to help prevent abuse and assault. These “People Safety” sessions are hands-on, success-based and designed to reduce fear and build confidence.

Workshop Leader John Luna-Sparks is a Senior Kidpower Teenpower Fullpower Instructor and a Licensed Clinical Social Worker. He is a psychotherapist with a specialty in treating young people and their families impacted by abuse and trauma, as well as people of all ages with developmental disabilities. John worked at Children’s Hospital & Research Center Oakland for the past 18 years, and is now in private practice in Oakland and Albany.

This tailored workshop is a service of the nonprofit leader in “People Safety” skills education for all ages & abilities.

WORKSHOP SPACE IS LIMITED AND PREREGISTRATION IS REQUIRED. To enroll in this workshop, please contact Kidpower at (800) 467-6997 ext. 1# or email safety@kidpower.org.

The workshops will be held at BANANAS in Oakland. Thank you to the Family Resource Network and BANANAS for their collaboration in making these workshops possible. Thanks to a grant from Autism Speaks, these workshops are being provided at no charge to participants.
